** Call to Worship

L: We gather together in this place:

P: prophets and dreamers, singers and poets,

L: we who dare to imagine a world renewed;

P: we who dare to dream God's dream.

L: We sing with Elizabeth and Mary.

P: Our spirits rejoice in God, our savior!

L: We bless the God of justice and joy,

P: who lifts up the lowly and vulnerable.

L: God's mercy is upon us all,

P: from generation to generation.

L: Come and worship, all you who dream and wait.

P: We have come to wonder and praise.

**Opening Prayer

God of surprises, you interrupt our world with joy and hope beyond our wildest dreams. When we feel forgotten or despair, bless us with your holy joy. When our world feels barren, bless us with the gifts of possibility. We pray as people of deep faith, entrusting ourselves and our world to the holy unknown, brought to birth in Jesus, our light and life. Amen.

Advent Candle Lighting

Justin and Andred Chastain

The birth of Jesus has been told and retold a thousand times and in a thousand ways. Its impact cannot be contained in any one perspective. The element of the story we focus on changes how we hear it, how we imagine it, and how we experience it. We light the candle of hope because hope creates a path for a new, unknown story to unfold. We light the candle of peace because peace requires us to pay attention to the needs of those around us.

Two cousins are embracing and sharing life-changing news with one another. One, an older woman, who knew the physical risks of bearing a child late in life. The other, a not-yet-married young girl, who was aware of the social stigmas in her society. Yet each chose joy over fear. When Elizabeth shares her surprising news with Mary, her joy doubles upon hearing that Mary is also pregnant. The two women sing of joy as they sense, literally, in their bodies that change is coming. A joy that good news perseveres even in the most difficult of circumstances. From Isaiah to Mary and Elizabeth, from biblical times to the present, joy can be found. Joy is not denial of harm that is happening; it is a refusal to let injustice define all reality. A joy that moves from personal experience to communal transformation in the song that Elizabeth and Mary proclaimed, and we proclaim today. A joy our world needs to experience this season, not to hide from what is wrong, but to strengthen God's people to bear a world that is so uncertain. Today, we light the candle of joy because joy sustains us in the midst of uncertainty.

Affirmation of Hope

Let us affirm God's gift of life-giving and justice-seeking joy:

We believe joy is the justice we give ourselves. Because God's joy dwells with the humble and is rooted in justice, we find its warmth and light shine brightest through shared witness and sacred disruption. We believe joy grows through blessing others and fostering authentic relationships. We believe joy is more than a feeling or the things we possess. Joy is our faith made visible and something we share by choosing connection. We believe joy is truth and truth-telling. We believe joy is active resistance, Spirit-filled solidarity, and the bringing of God's dream. We believe true joy is not the opposite of heartache, but lives right within the swirl of our grief and hardest emotions. We celebrate the depth of God's joy and how it can hold our pain. When we are filled with this kind of joy, we celebrate what God is birthing now, even amid a world where so much appears to be ending. We believe joy is freedom and healing, redemption and return. We believe joy comes from knowing God is close, even when life is hard. God's joy shows up not just in breathtaking beauty but in moments we hurt so much we can't breathe. We choose justice. We choose love. We choose each other. We choose joy.

Rev. Kristin Pike

There is joy in centering the voices of those typically unheard. So go forth from this place with ears to hear, and believe the cries of women, immigrants, elders, and all who are vulnerable and silenced. May we be strengthened not just to hear and believe, but to act, for there is no greater joy than ensuring that all God's children need not cry out any longer.

**Benediction

Rev. Kristin Pike

You go nowhere by accident. Wherever you go, God is sending you. Wherever you are, God has put you there. God has a purpose in your being there. Christ lives in you and has something to do through you wherever you are. Believe this and go in the grace, and love, and power of Jesus Christ. Amen.
