**Opening Prayer

God of liberation, your love reaches beyond all boundaries of prejudice and fear. Your tenderness is offered not only to the powerful or deserving, but to all people, according to your infinite compassion. Teach us to love widely and boldly, honoring the dignity of all and trusting your promise that the way of love is the way of life. Amen.

Advent Candle Lighting

Becky Rees and Norman Rice

The birth of Jesus has been told and retold a thousand times and in a thousand ways. Its impact cannot be contained in any one perspective. The element of the story we focus on changes how we hear it, how we imagine it, and how we experience it. We light the candle of hope because hope creates a path for a new, unknown story to unfold. We light the candle of peace because peace requires us to pay attention to the needs of those around us. And we light the candle of joy because joy sustains us in the midst of uncertainty.

Imagine that what you once thought was impossible has come to fruition. Zechariah, the husband of Elizabeth never believed they would be parents, and now he is holding his infant son, John. Zechariah experiences an unexpected joy that leads to love. A love that reclaims and reorients all who are present toward the possibilities of God. A love that makes the most difficult of situations bearable and all things seem possible, even situations that dehumanize, harm, and belittle. A love that invites a lifelong commitment to mercy, justice, and peace. Today we light the candle of love because love makes the impossible possible.

**Hymn of Gratitude (on the screen)

"While We Are Waiting, Come"

Scripture Reading - Luke 1:57-80

Rev. Kristin Pike

Affirmation of Hope

Let us affirm God's gift of bold and liberating love:

We believe in the power of love, a love that not only comforts but liberates. A love constructed with care, compassion, and courage, providing shelter and safety for all God's children. We believe in love's guardrails of grace and mercy. Love does not demand or wait for perfection, but scoops us up in arms of unconditional care, where we are, as we are. We believe, with gratitude, in a legacy of love, a long thread of memory recalling who we are and whose we are, stitching us into its tapestry of belonging. We believe love is not earned. Love is not control. Love is care and connection. We believe love holds no secrets. Love does not shame. Love speaks up. Love makes space. Because God's love doesn't give up on us, we will not give up on ourselves or each other. We will remember and bless. We will fix what is broken. We will look for the dawn of God's love in and around us.

To embody love is more than sentiment. It is choosing, every day, to see the worth and good in ourselves, others, and this world. So go forth from this place modeling merciful love, and remember God is love. Though it may be difficult to understand, we see what it means modeled in Jesus. May blessings flow from your mouth as you seek to be love in this world.

**Benediction

Rev. Kristin Pike

You go nowhere by accident. Wherever you go, God is sending you. Wherever you are, God has put you there. God has a purpose in your being there. Christ lives in you and has something to do through you wherever you are. Believe this and go in the grace, and love, and power of Jesus Christ. Amen.
